CHAMPION'S DUO

Piero Fumagalli is a secessionist Milanese industrialist, who meets the Roman Remo, who is a warehouse worker. Both work for a company that has chosen them to go to Prague to watch the Champions League final, with the aim of taking a photo in front of the Cup, under penalty of dismissal. Piero leaves with Remo, but an emergency landing due to bad weather in Slovenia forces them to travel to Prague with makeshift means. Furthermore, the two will have to put up with each other, even if they are completely different in character. During the journey to Prague, the two will have the opportunity to become friends.
