

FOR LOVE ONE DIES

Anna, a thirty-year-old widow and avid dreamer, runs a restaurant in Stromboli together with her teenage daughter Nanà and her mother-in-law. When the old woman dies, Anna inherits everything and decides to sell her properties to move to Milan on the advice of one of her clients. She soon finds herself in a frivolous environment, and while people try to scam her, she doesn't notice the shy affection of her doorman Sergio.
